AGENDA

The Global Partnership for Education Knowledge and Innovation Exchange (KIX) has now been underway for one year. To mark this first year and the progress that has been made, we will host a virtual event titled "KIX Symposium: Reflecting on Progress and Looking Towards the Future". Register here today!

Session	Time	Description
Introduction	7:00–7:05 AM	Tiffany Barnes-Huggins, Program Officer with KIX, will moderate the KIX Symposium and introduce the agenda for the day and share housekeeping tips.
Opening remarks	7:05–7:15 AM	Alice Albright, CEO of the Global Partnership for Education, and Jean Lebel, President of the International Development Research Centre, will make opening remarks to kickstart this virtual event.
Reflecting on progress: Year 1	7:15–7:25 AM	Tricia Wind, Program Leader of KIX, will share learning from KIX' first year of operations, as well as progress on milestones, funding opportunities, and the KIX Digital Platform.
Keeping KIX on track in a COVID context	7:25–8:15 AM	The COVID-19 pandemic has deeply impacted basic education around the world. In this session, we explore how KIX projects are navigating and responding to the pandemic, and how COVID-19 is disrupting education systems in the Global South. This session will begin with a video featuring KIX hubs on how COVID-19 is impacting education priorities in the regions. Following the video, a live panel will take place with Shem Bodo, Victoria Tinio, and Renaud Comba to discuss how the pandemic has impacted their projects and research. The session will conclude with a live Q&A session with our panelists, so please save your questions until the end. This panel will be moderated by Florencio Ceballos, Senior Program Specialist with KIX.
Looking towards the future: Year 2	8:15–8:25 AM	During this session, Joy Nafungo, Senior Program Officer with KIX, will present on the priorities and goals for the upcoming year of KIX operations.
